JOEY LORUSSO

1986 - 2002

When the Class of 2005 entered Pope John, Joey LoRusso was one of our classmates. He was an outgoing, humorous, and fun-loving freshman who loved his friends and family. Joey taught us many lessons while he was with us. Always trying to make people laugh, Joey knew that humor was a key ingredient to friendship. Also, he recognized that his family would always play an important role in his life. He loved his friends and family a great deal and demonstrated his love on a daily basis. Because of these admirable characteristics, we constantly try to model his love and sense of humor. The Class of 2005 has shown their respect for Joey by decorating the school's flag pole and his freshman locker. We think of him often, and we always keep his family in our prayers. As graduation approaches, the Class of 2005 looks back and remembers our loving classmate. We, along with his friends and family, truly miss Joey and want his memory to live on. It has been three years since Joey's accident and death, and the effects of this tragedy are still felt throughout the school. Joey may be gone, but he will never be forgotten. Rest in peace, Joey. We love you!

Student Life.....44

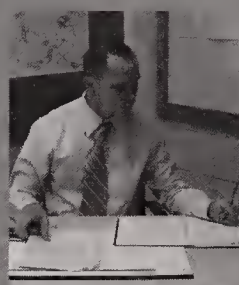

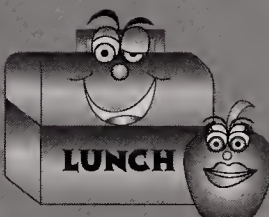

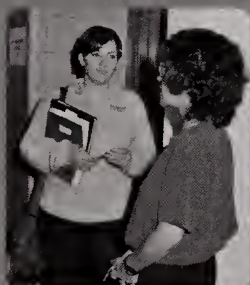

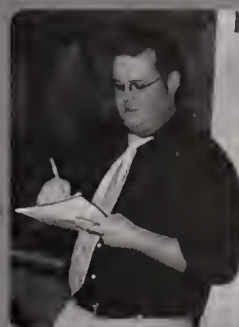

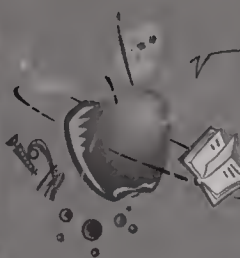

THROUGHOUT FOUR YEARS OF HIGH SCHOOL, WE LEARN, WE LOVE, WE LAUGH, ALL WHILE WE PREPARE FOR OUR FUTURES. THE MEMORIES WE CREATE TODAY WILL FOREVER KEEP US SMILING. WHEN WE LOOK BACK AND SEE THE WORLD OF OUR YOUTH, WE'LL LAUGH AT OUR SILLY CHILDISH GAMES, MARVEL AT OUR PERCEPTION OF THE WORLD, AND REMEMBER THE LESSONS WE LEARNED AT POPE JOHN XXIII HIGH SCHOOL. WE'LL SEE THE WORLD AS IT ONCE WAS AND SAY, "LOOK WHO'S LAUGHING NOW!"

ACADEMICS

What did one math book say to the other math book?

"I've got more problems than you!"

ACADEMICS are all about learning together and becoming prepared for the future. At Pope John, our teachers not only push us to excel, but they bring joy into our lives as well. From Sister Ruth's "Glory be to Peter!" exclamations to Mr. Mulhern's comedic impressions, Pope John teachers give us many reasons to laugh. So, in addition to learning and taking valuable courses, students at Pope John get a well-rounded education. Academics at Pope John are no laughing matter.

Principal's Message

Dear Members of the Class of 2005,

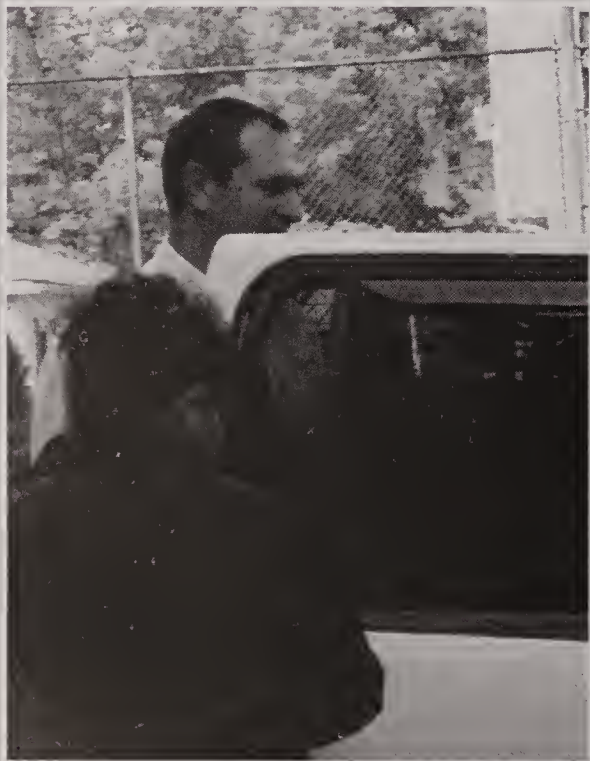

I, like you, can hardly believe that four years have come and gone as quickly as they did. I feel a special relationship with you; we came to Pope John together, and have shared some incredible experiences. It seems that we barely began to acclimate ourselves to our new home when we were struck with the tragic loss of Joey LoRusso. Yet in that tragedy as well as the sadness of losing Mr. Van, we found a strength that has been the hallmark of this class.

As you reflect on your time at Pope John, I hope that beyond the athletic events, dances, drama presentations and even the everyday classes, you remember the people. I know that it is the people: teachers, coaches, classmates who have given you all that you need to be successful as you move beyond the comfortable walls of Pope John. I am confident in your preparation to accept the challenges that the world will pose. You take with you the greatest instrument available to us: love. I pray that you share it generously with a world in desperate need of it.

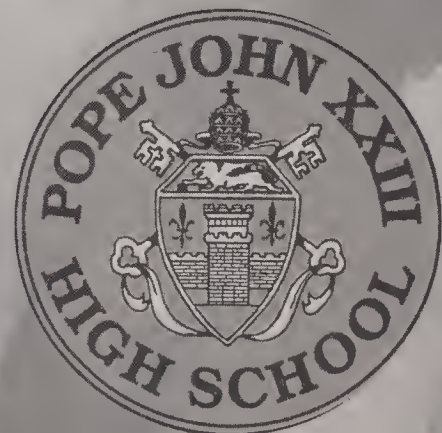

Do great things. Play hard. Pray hard. All the while, remember your Pope John Family. Know that you will always be a part of us and that, no matter where life takes you, you are always welcome here. Go Tigers!!!!

Sincerely,

Thomas P. Arria, Jr.

VHS

Virtual High School

What I like about VHS is that it offers a variety of courses. It allows you to learn about something you are really interested in.
Tim Bruno,
Senior

This was my second year taking VHS. It's fun being able to talk to students from across the US! I would highly recommend it.
Kristina Sciarappa,
Senior

I like VHS because it enables me to expand my computer skills. It also lets me take classes that would not be available to me at Pope John.
Steven Dong,
Junior

VHS is a good way to learn. It allows you to work at your own pace on your own time.
Christine Provitola,
Junior

THIS YEAR POPE JOHN OFFERED FOUR DIFFERENT ADVANCED PLACEMENT COURSES: BIOLOGY, CALCULUS, HISTORY, AND LITERATURE AND COMPOSITION. JUNIORS AND SENIORS WHO QUALIFY TO TAKE PART IN SUCH CLASSES PREPARE FROM SEPTEMBER UNTIL MAY FOR THE AP EXAMS, AND IF STUDENTS PASS THEY MAY EARN COLLEGE CREDIT. SO WHETHER IT'S CYPHERING OUT DERIVATIVES IN MR. BALL'S CALCULUS CLASS OR TIMED WRITINGS IN MR. MULHERN'S LITERATURE AND COMPOSITION COURSE, AP STUDENTS ARE KEPT BUSY ALL YEAR LONG!!

Advanced Placement

"My favorite part of AP Calculus is when the bell rings at the end of class."
—Jason Breau

"I like taking AP Biology on VHS because it's a different experience. But my favorite part will be when it's over!"
—Kristina Dunn

"My favorite parts of AP English are reading different books and Mr. Mulhern's jokes."
—Kathleen Bishop

Rule

2005

"I don't care to belong to a club that accepts people like me as members." -Groucho Marx

CLUBS at Pope John give students the chance to learn what they like to do and what they're good at. Shared memories of special club activities always brings smiles to our faces. Fun times and laughter with good friends are the best reasons to join clubs at Pope John. All joking aside, student organizations bring life to our school and allow students to showcase their talents.

Drama

Director Kelly MacNeil Gaynor

The Pope John Drama Club is an organization which is always searching for new members who are willing to act, sing, dance, paint, build sets, sew costumes, create props, etc. In February 2004, the drama club entered the Mass High School Drama Guild Festival for the first time. Members and directors alike hope to make a tradition out of attending this festival.

Members of the Drama Club participate in three productions per season: a Fall show, a Christmas show, and a Spring musical. The Fall One-Act Plays, "Four Little Words" and "Women of Troy", were performed on October 29-31, 2004. "The Littlest Angel" was the group's Christmas performance on December 12, 2004, and "Grease" was the Spring musical performed on April 13 and 8-10, 2005.

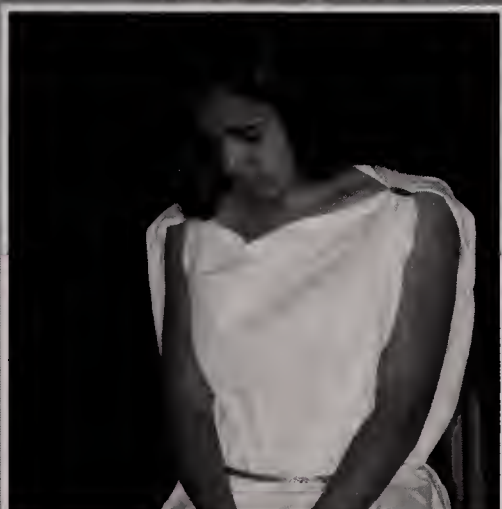

A man trying to get tickets to a "Wicked," finally settled for a couple of seats a year in advance. The exciting night arrived sitting down in his seat, a woman in front of him noticed the empty seat next to him and asked why such a valuable commodity was unused. "My wife couldn't make it," he said. The woman asked him if he didn't have relatives or friends who could have used the seat. He replied, "Oh, they're all at her funeral."

The Mercury

The Mercury, Pope John's student newspaper, is published each month. The paper provides the students with all the news from within the school, as well as providing commentary on world and national affairs. In addition to reporting the news, the Mercury also provides movie reviews, trivia, and horoscopes.

The Yearbook

The Pope John yearbook provides a comprehensive review of the school year. Each year, the staff assigns a theme and incorporates it into every aspect of the book. The yearbook features a recap of Academics, Clubs, Sports, Student Life, and a special section for the seniors.

The National Honor Society holds its meetings monthly. Members participate in numerous activities throughout the year which serve to benefit not only the school community but the city-wide and worldwide communities as well.

ATHLETICS

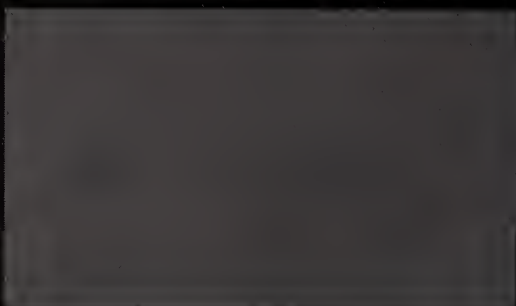

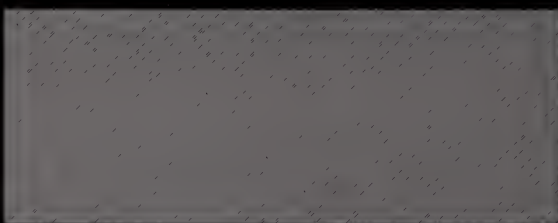

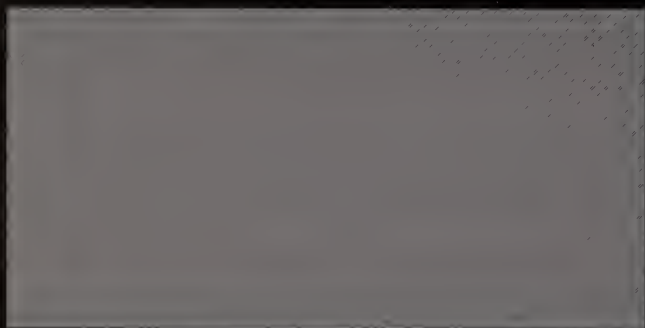

Coming home from his Little League game, Billy swung open the front door excitedly. Unable to attend the game, his father immediately wanted to know what happened. "So, how did you do, son?" he asked. "You'll never believe it!" Billy said. "I was responsible for the winning run!" "Really? How'd you do that?" "I dropped the ball."

ATHLETICS bring a sense of school spirit to the lives of Pope John students. Through the ups and downs, and the wins and losses, our athletes never give up. A student athlete's schedule is never easy; it's demanding and exhausting to say the least. However, Pope John athletes represent our school and give us all a reason to cheer: GOTIGERS! Win or lose, we always have the most fun, and therefore the last laugh.

Hot Shots

Football

Pope John Tigers began their football season on fire, winning their first five games. They led the division in fewest points allowed and quarterback Anthony Nalen led the League in touchdown passes. However, as injuries plagued the team, it plagued their record as well. Even though the team is unfortunately losing seniors Andy Delory, Patrick Hanlon, Emmanuel Raymond, and Bryan Sharkey, they will have many returning starters for next year.

Anthony Nalen, Pope John quarterback, throws a pass to tight-end Peter Giannikopoulos to score a touchdown.

The 2004 volleyball season was a rebuilding one under the leadership of senior captains Meaghan McCole, Michelle Lima, and Lauren Woodworth. The team celebrated many victories over rivals such as Austin Prep and Marian. Michelle Lima had an excellent fourth season as starting setter, with Lauren Woodworth dominating the court with her spikes, and Meaghan McCole being named a Catholic League All Star. A number of juniors added to the team's success including Christine Provitola, Jennifer Naugler, and Samantha Berardino. The 2005 season looks to be a promising one for the girls with over ten returning varsity players and many talented underclassmen.

BOYS HOCKEY

This year's hockey season was full of highs and lows. After losing their first two games, the team came alive, winning 4 to 1 against East Boston. Led by senior captains Shawn Cameron and Jason Breau, the players remained focused and determined. Next season the hockey players will be without the efforts of goalie Billy Bingham, center Shawn Cameron, left wing Jason Breau, defenseman Bill Duggan, and forwards Andrew Pippy and Andy Delory. However, the future looks bright for Pope John hockey with returning players Anthony Nalen, Anthony Puopolo, and other talented underclassmen who are willing to rise to the challenge of a new season!

GIRLS HOCKEY

For what reason did you decide to coach Pope John's first girls hockey team?

Coach D'Onofrio

"Well, I played Varsity Hockey for Pope John in 1988. Also, I coached boys and girls hockey for fourteen years in numerous states, such as Massachusetts, Colorado, Las Vegas, and Michigan."

Why were you interested in joining Pope John's first girls hockey team?

Lauren Woodworth

Both the boys and girls basketball teams have faced a tough schedule this year with many games against teams in higher divisions. Despite this rigorous schedule the boys team has managed a winning record and a bid to the playoffs yet again, while the girls battle valiantly to remain around 500%. The boys have much to look forward to next year as well, with five starters returning. The girls are losing senior captains Sierra Gomes and Kristina Peters but will have a host of choices coming up from JV this upcoming season.

Baseball

The boys baseball team accomplished a great deal this season. Missing the tournament by a few games, the players and coaches were slightly disappointed. However, the Pope John baseball team lost only two seniors, and those juniors returning as seniors in 2005 will use their experience to have a successful year. The returning seniors are Joe Fern, Jason Breau, Shawn Cameron, Chris Petrone, Andy Delory, and Bill Bingham.

Besides the bus rides with kids I know from the team and all of our good conversations, I would have to say that my favorite part about baseball is playing outfield and diving on the freshly-cut grass. Also, breaking up a 'no hitter' against the much-hated St. Mary's Sparatans was a great accomplishment.

Softball

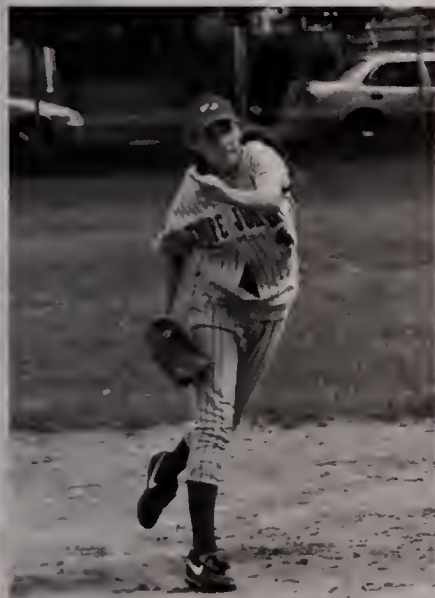

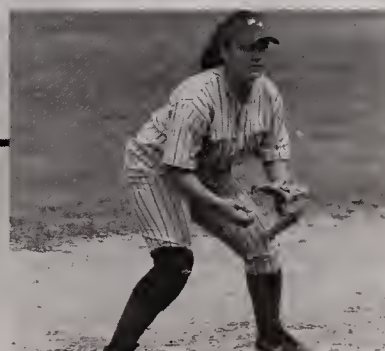

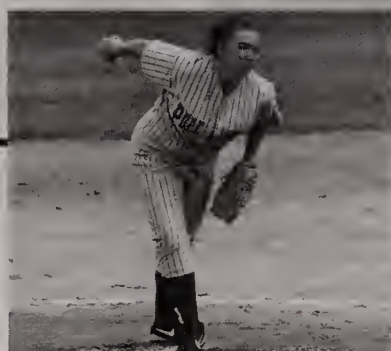

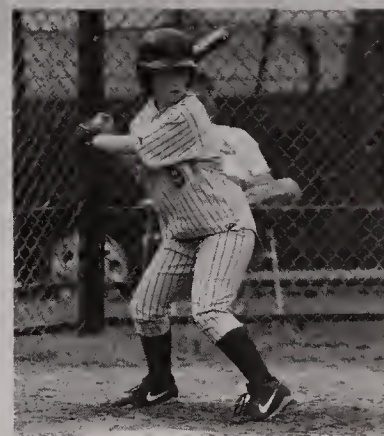

The girls softball team had a good season in 2004. They were led by captain Jenna Cordero, who was named to the All Star Team. It was the last year for coach Cara Lopez. The team will miss her a great deal, but they are looking forward to a successful 2005 season with their new coach.

Softball will outlast other sports because a diamond is forever.

Fred got home from his Sunday round of golf later than normal and very tired. "Bad day at the course?" his wife asked. "Everything was going fine," he said. "Then Harry had a heart attack and died on the 10th tee." "Oh, that's awful!" "You're not kidding. For the whole back nine it was hit the ball, drag Harry, hit the ball, drag Harry."

GYMNASTICS

Pope John gymnastics is one of the school's most recognized athletic teams. This past year, the girls have practiced and competed in conjunction with Austin Prep. The girls are coached by Mrs. Betty Peavey and led by captains Sonia Faia and Julie Sauchuk. The gymnastics team competes throughout the state and always finishes at the top.

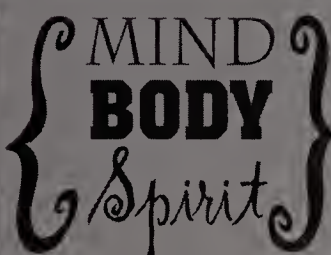

What do gymnastics conditioning coaches and people who make bacon have in common?

They both tear hams into shreds!!

STUDENT LIFE

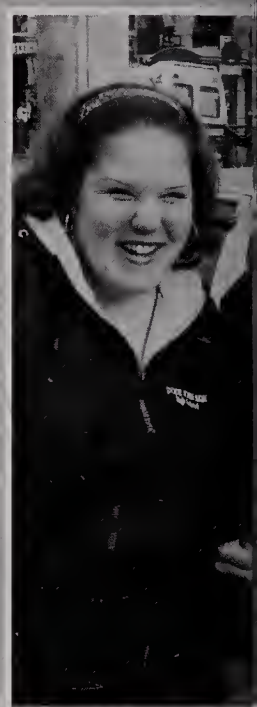

"I like life. It's something to do."

-Ronnie Shakes

STUDENT LIFE at Pope John is what holds our community together. Whether it's trips to Europe, holy liturgies, or celebrating New England sports with spirit days, student activities at school are always dynamic. From something as simple as hearing jokes in the hallways to something as crazy as Halloween haunted houses, student life in our community is what keeps us laughing.

AND

PARIS

During April Vacation in 2004, Mr. Raia and Ms. Goldberg took a group of students to Madrid, Spain and Paris, France. For most of the students, this was the first time they had ever left US soil. Both cities are known for their history and art as well as their shopping and food, and the Pope John crew experienced it all. They tarried in museums like the Prado and the Louvre, basked in the grandeur of the Eiffel Tower and the Cathedral of Salamanca, feasted on tapas and crepes, and shopped till they dropped. The fantastic flamenco show in Madrid and the evening at the Moulin Rouge in Paris were just two of the highlights from this tour.

A Night to Remember

World Championship 2004

1. Wally the Green Monster showing his support for the team.

2. David Ortiz with senior Sierra Gomes at the Nomar Bowl.

3. Millions of fans filled Fenway Park each game to show support for their home team.

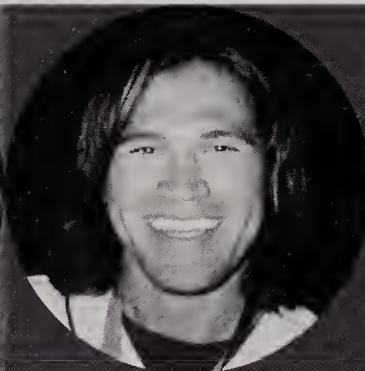

4. 3.8 million fans crowded the streets of Boston for the World Champion parade.

The Babe...enough said

Once upon a time,

Boston played in the World Series many times and won them all-1903, 1912, 1915, 1916, and 1918. But then came 1920 and the team sold Babe Ruth to the Yankees. The trips to baseball's Fall Classic changed. A loss in seven games to the Cardinals in 1946 when Enos Slaughter made his "mad dash" for home.

A magical run to make the series in 1967 only to fall to the Cards in seven. Then came 1975 and Carlton Fisk's dramatic homer in Game 6 only to see the Reds win Game 7. In 1986, it was one out away from beating the Mets in Game 6. But in 2004 all that changed, as Boston made a historic comeback to beat the Yankees in the ALCS and then sweep the Cardinals in four.

Campus

Ministry

Brave sophomore martyrs himself and talks in front of his peers.

Dianna Rice and Paige McSorley lend their time and effort with the Thanksgiving food baskets.

Megan Conneaney and Alec Bona help with the Thanksgiving food baskets.

Mass of Remembrance participants arrived on a Sunday morning to remember our deceased PJ alumni.

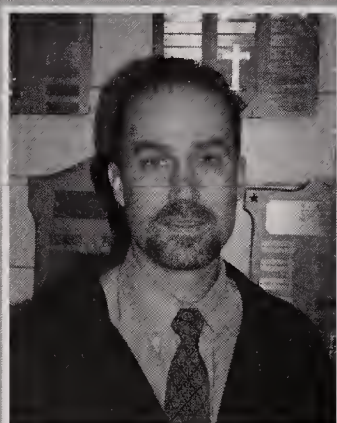

Sophomores participate in skit at annual retreat.

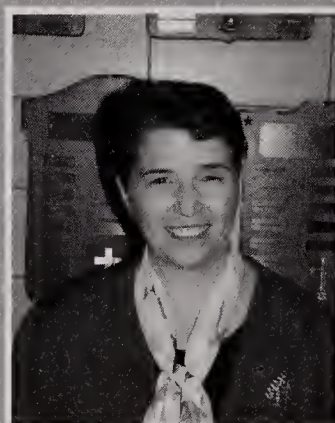

"I see my role in Campus Ministry as a 'starpolisher'. We in Campus Ministry strive to give PJ students many opportunities to live the Great Commandments."

-Sister Ruth Haley

"Campus Ministry is about trying to make a 'Sunday to Monday' connection. It is about trying to live what we preach in church and bring it into our own hallways and classrooms."

-Glenn Griffin

"I would like to help our students to achieve a more fulfilling and meaningful spiritual life and to be able to live more in tune with their Christian values."

-Maria Maser

"Campus Ministry means being able to bring the poor and the vulnerable to visibility in this school through the service projects we organize."

-Brad Rothrock

Why are there no Christians in Heaven yet? Because they are still at the gates, saying to each other, "After you," "No I insist after you..."

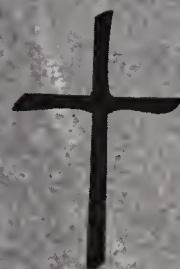

Pope John Leadership Institute

Nick Montesano, Kaitlyn Randazzo, Kari Weinburg, Shawn Cameron, Mr. Arria, Kathleen Bishop, Andrew Delory, Jason Breau, Meaghan McCole, Kristina Sciarappa, Eileen Vazquez, Allison Cote, Gina Ciano, Heather DeFlumeri, Mrs. Maser, Patrick Hanlon, Catherine Murphy, and Sierra Gomes

Sierra and Billy spend quality time with the principal. (They even let him win a few game)

Who knew you were supposed to stand on one foot to say the pledge? Here at PJLI, we take patriotism to a new extreme.

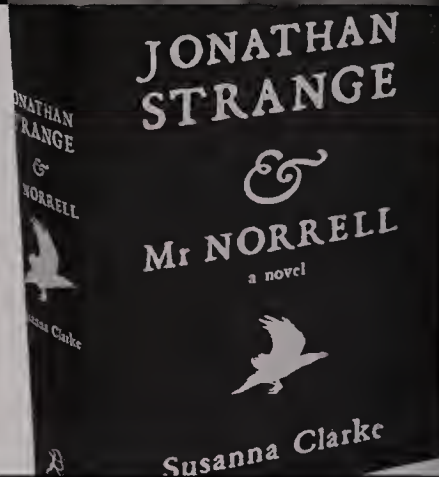

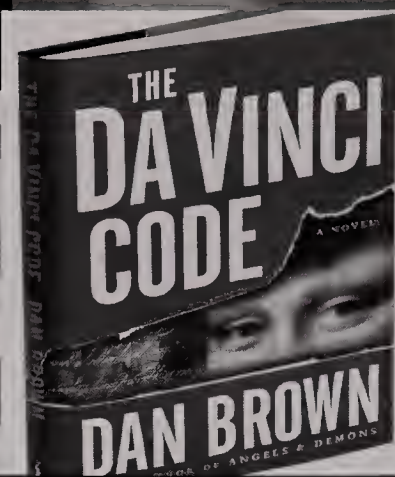

Nick Montesano portrays how the average 'nerd' in high school is tormented in a skit displaying poor leadership skills.

The teens work in teams trying to become the next leaders of the nation, or at least Pope John leaders.

Bestsellers & Headlines

Jon Stewart's guide to life as an American, America's Book, topped the charts this year, along with The Da Vinci Code which has been on the best sellers list for over 90 weeks.

The top news of 2004 were the hurricanes in Florida, the War in Iraq, and the Scott Peterson trial. Peterson was convicted of murdering his pregnant wife.

Music

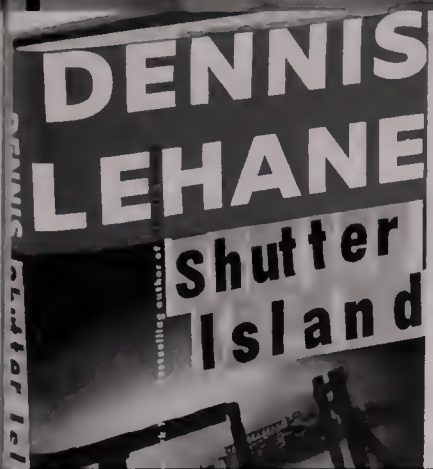

Punk Veterans Green Day and rap new comer Kanye West each scored a hit as well as multiple Grammy noms with their CD's "American Idiot" and "The College Dropout," respectively.

2004: A Year

TV And Movies

New series ruled the airwaves in 2004, with Lost, Desperate Housewives, and CSI: New York winning the ratings battles. The Incredibles, Mean Girls, and Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban were some of the top rated movies. Lord of the Rings: Return of the King picked up 11 Oscars.

In Review

In 2004, President George W. Bush ran successfully for re-election. His opponent, Democratic nominee John F. Kerry emerged from a candidate pool including Vermont Governor Howard Dean, perennial Democratic candidate Dennis Kucinich, Senator Joseph Lieberman, and Rev. Al Sharpton.

Video Games

This was a year of sequels in Video Games. Halo 2, the much anticipated follow up to 2001's XBox smash was released, selling $125 Million in its first day. Rock Star Games also released Grand Theft Auto: San Andreas, the fifth in the GTA series. Tony Hawk Underground 2 was also released this year, pitting Team Bam against team Hawk. Nintendo DS was also released this year.

CONGRATULATIONS PATRICK !

Patrick, your family is so proud,
And we all love you and shout it loud,
The years have passed and you have grown,
Remember you're Special to all you've known,
Intelligent, athletic, you possess it all,
Captain and student, you lead so tall,
Know that we love you, one and all!

Love,

Papa, Lauren, Your Loving Aunts,
Uncles, & Cousins

"The light of our lives is the Son in our eyes"

Love,
Mom & Dad

Dear Meredith,
From the moment you were born you've brought so much joy into our lives. Now that you've reached this milestone, we want you to know how proud we are of you and how much we love you.

Remember to always follow your dreams and reach for the moon and you will shine among the stars.

God Bless you and keep you safe.

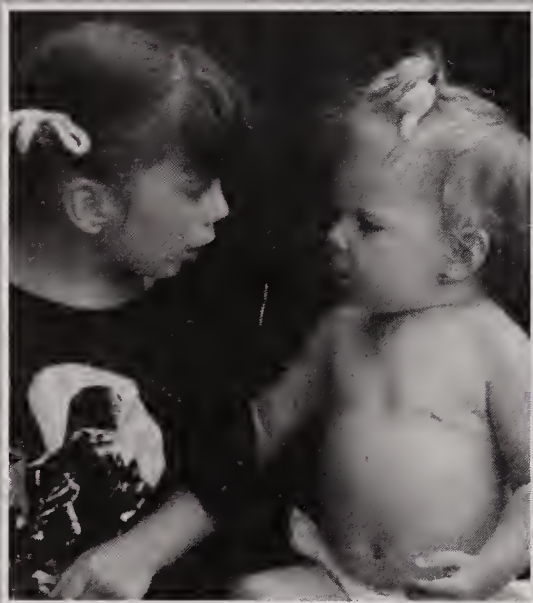

We Love You,
Mom & Dad

Congratulations Baby! I love you so much, and Remember I am here through every step that you take.

Love You Baby, Stefano

My little Sis, We've been through so much and remained SIDE BY SIDE. I'm proud of you, adore you and cherish our friendship. LOVE YA, muah

The Light of my life. You have made me so proud. Always remember who LOVES YOU.

Katy,

Always look ahead—your talents are bright and new. Should you look back and see old difficulties, use them as lessons learned. Smile and enjoy life. We're here for you always. You have made us proud!

To our shining star!

*Love always,
Mom-Dad-Sandy-Buddy-
Teddy and Faith*

On the day you were born, you put a sparkle in our eyes, which has grown to an enormous pride in all you have accomplished and are yet to do.

Love,
